DBS/CONVICTIONS/CRIMINAL RECORD

The position in which you are applying for is subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service check which means that all convictions, cautions, reprimands, and final warnings on your criminal record that are not "protected" as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013), need to be disclosed. You are obliged to now disclose those details: -

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be considered. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

Please tick the box below to confirm as applicable: -
